The Fisk OVB Presentation Bowie

This knife starts out as a billet of our premium 0170-6C Carbon steel and is mated to a hand-selected stabilized amber fiddleback maple handle. A precision fit guard and ferrule add a touch of class, and are accented by stainless steel handle bolts that are seamlessly blended like the finest custom knife.

This new OVB Bowie is the perfect fixed blade addition for the serious knife collector as only five hundred of this model will be produced in 2002. The sheath for this model is a heavy-duty brown leather slip sheath that has a removable frog for belt carry.

Camillus Cutlery is extremely honored to be working with Mr. Fisk. We hope to introduce other OVB models in the future that not only showcase the beauty of traditional, natural materials but also quality of our factory craftsmen.

About Jerry Fisk

Jerry Fisk of Lockesburg, Arkansas became the seventeenth Master Bladesmith in the American Bladesmith Society in 1989. Since then Fisk has won numerous awards and honors from his peers, but his most impressive achievement to date was being named a National Living Treasure by the University of North Carolina for his contributions in aiding to keep the craft of bladesmithing alive.

Mr. Fisk was chosen to design the first knife for the new OVB line by Camillus Cutlery. We sincerely believe that Mr. Fisk's OVB Bowie design fits the name of our newest brand of knives perfectly, as it is truly indicative of the very best work we have done.
